

TO THE BLUE BOOK

What's demanded by you, Blue Book?
Who-Book?
Revenue Book?
Is it coupon-catching hands,
Angling ever with a new book
For more sugar lands?

Who receive your plaudits, Blue Book?
Due Book?
Interview Book?
Those who paint or sketch or sing?
Those who seek—and precious few look!
Truth in everything?

Who are Upper Ten, O Blue Book?
Clue Book?
Public View Book?
Those who number gowns galore?
Starting silly fads that few brook?
Owing every store?

What's your ultimatum, Blue Book?
Due Book?
Give-the-clue-Book?
To have beaten kings at cards?
To excel as chaffing-stew cook?
To be rag-time bards?

No, you make your Chosen, Blue Book,
Pooh! Book,
You askew Book!—
Those you find at home, no doubt,
Search all others for the new Book;
Mark me, they'll be "Out!"

WORKS WITH HER MOUTH

Miss Mary E. Green, the well known missionary worker of Central Union Church, who visits the police station and does much good work among the lowly, has received an interesting letter from a woman, who not only talks with her mouth, but also earns her livelihood with that organ. This woman is Fannie W. Tunison, of Sag Harbor, N. Y., who does sewing, embroidery, writing, drawing, painting, threading needles, and all that is generally meant for the hands, being deprived of these faculties from birth. The letter to Miss Green was written with a pencil which Miss Tunison held in her mouth, and reads as follows:

Your letter just received. What you have heard about me is true. I feel thankful that I have the gift of earning my living, and as the post says, "Let us try to be happy; we may if we will."
Find some good in life to e'erbalance the ill.
There never was an evil well understood.
But what rightly managed would turn into good."

I have never had the use of my limbs; have always worked with my mouth. My work has been sent for from all over the world, for I am the only woman in all the world who works with her mouth. Please accept my best wishes. From your friend,
FANNIE W. TUNISON.
Sag Harbor.

The letter is written in bold letters, and has little the appearance of being done other than with the hand.

THE RATIO AT MANILA.

Merchants and Others Object to the Change.

MANILA, Jan. 7.—Numerous meetings of merchants and others have been held recently, at which resolutions were passed urgently requesting Congressional action to meet the financial situation here. Since the ratio was officially changed January 1 for the first quarter of 1902, to be $2.10 Mexican silver to one American gold dollar, business transactions of any sort have become difficult. The majority of the business houses have raised their prices 5 to 10 per cent and some houses refuse to accept any but American coin, which is difficult to obtain, owing to the vast speculative shipments of coin during the past few months. Some banks refuse to recognize the government ratio and are fixing their own ratio at one American gold dollar to two Mexican dollars. Even the government's American employees, whose salaries are payable in Mexican dollars, object to the change, owing to the large increase in prices. The leading banks refuse to handle government checks because of frequent long delays over trifling irregularities. The postal authorities refuse to accept Mexican dollars for American dollars at any ratio.

Commissioner Ide, who has been in the hospital, suffering from dysentery, is going to Japan on a two months' trip.

The interstate commerce commission meetings at Chicago have been postponed to January 24th.

Col. I. E. Mossmore, a well known Los Angeles attorney, is dead.

The Lusitana Society, which was to have met last evening for the election of officers, adjourned without taking action. The meeting for the election of officers will be held Sunday, and a lively contest between rival factions is expected.

The Wilder Steamship Company has resumed the carrying of palat to Molokai under the old contract. The new arrangement which was contemplated with Young Brothers by the Board of Health, for some reason, fell through, and the old deal will be carried out.

Paymaster Brown, of the Mohican, is a son of Admiral Brown, who was at one time in command of the fleet stationed in these islands. He wears a handsome diamond ring presented to him by King Kalakaua, and which the admiral, being an officer of the United States navy, could not accept at the time. Admiral Brown and Kalakaua were reputed to be great friends.

Chris Less, a sailor on the Iroquois, and a native of Norway, was made a United States citizen by Judge Estee yesterday morning. One of the witnesses was a sailor also, and he introduced for the first time the modern shirtwaist into the local Federal Court, but Judge Estee's dignity appeared in no way offended, for he paid no attention to the much discussed article of wearing apparel.

EAT POISON

Five Die in One Room.

When we put our new rat poison on the market we called attention to the fact that it was a real poison and would kill. Our patrons who have tried it verify our claim. They bring wonderful tales of the mortality among the rats. One customer said that five were poisoned in one room the first night it was used.

Rats Must Go

is the well chosen name of this new destroyer of rats and mice. A trial will convince anyone that if rodents are to be exterminated our poison will do the work quickly and surely.

A large can costs fifty cents. There is sufficient poison to destroy hundreds of rats. Isn't it worth this to free your house, barn or yard of rats? You know the importance, too.

Insist on having the real Rats Must Go.
